

Predicted tide correctors were then applied to the drag depths obtained. These predicted tide correctors were generated onboard with the ship's Digital PDP 11/34 computer and predicted tide tapes for 1984. These tide tapes were supplied to the ships by MOA 231. Hardcopy printouts of the predicted tide correctors used during this survey are included in the data file. Smooth tides have been applied to all data during processing.