

Predicted tides based on the Honolulu gage with time and range adjustments to Hilo were used during shipboard processing. Tides used for the reduction of final soundings reflect approved hourly heights with direct zoning from the Upolu Point gage (16-7737).