

One subordinate tide gage, Hoonah Harbor, was installed and operating concurrent with field operations. The Hoonah Harbor tide gage was utilized to zone the survey for reduction of sounding data on the smooth sheet.

Soundings on the final field Sheet were reduced using predicted tides from Juneau, Alaska corrected for time and range. Further information is available in the Field Tide Note.