

This survey was conducted using predicted tides based on daily predictions at Charlotte Amalie, St. Thomas, U.S. Virgin Islands, (975-1639) with Galveston, Texas (3277) as the reference station. Smooth tides have been requested from the Chief, Tides and Water Levels Branch (C23) for the period of hydrography.