

A subordinate tide gage at Whitestone Harbor* was installed and operated concurrently with sounding operations. The Whitestone Harbor tide gage was utilized to zone the survey for reduction of sounding data on the smooth sheet. Soundings on the Final Field Sheet were reduced using predicted tides from Juneau, Alaska, with applied time and range ratios. Further information is available in the Field Tide Note.