

Predicted tides based on the Ketchikan gage with time and range adjustments were utilized during shipboard processing. Tide correctors used for the reduction of final soundings are computed from approved hourly heights zoned direct from the N.E. Arm Boca De Quadra gage (945-0398). (See appended Tide Note.)