

One temporary bubbler-tide gage, Cape Douglas (945-6477), was installed and operated concurrently with field operations. The Cape Douglas tide gage was utilized to zone the survey for reduction of sounding data on the smooth sheet. Soundings on the final field sheet were reduced on the basis of predicted tides from Seldovia (945-5500). Further information is available in the Field Tide Note.