

Predicted tides based on the Ketchikan, Alaska, gage were utilized during shipboard processing. Tide correctors used for the reduction of final soundings reflect approved hourly heights zoned direct from the Vallenar Point gage (945-0511).