

Ketchikan, Alaska served as the reference station (945-0460) for predicted tides. Tide stations were installed at Hut Point, Walker Cove entrance (945-0695) and at 55/43/10N, 130/47/30W (945-0811). Additional tide gage information and leveling results can be found in the Field Tide Note.

Predicted tides based on the Ketchikan, Alaska gage was used during field processing. Tide correctors used for the reduction of final soundings reflect approved hourly heights zoned from Hut Point and Fin, Alaska.