

Predicted tides based on the Kodiak, Alaska gage with time and range adjustments were utilized during shipboard processing. Tide correctors used for the reduction of final soundings are computed from approved hourly heights from two temporary tide gages, Bird Island and Kanatak Lagoon.