

Predicted tides based on the Seldovia, Alaska gage with time and range adjustments were utilized during shipboard processing. Tide correctors used for the reduction of final soundings are computed from approved hourly heights from the two temporary tide gages, Ushagat Island and Perl Island.