

It should be noted that area tapes were made for smooth field sheet plotting. These tapes correspond to the six tide zone areas of the survey. Some hydrographic data was collected past the limits of hydrography in San Antonio Creek and along the southern limits of the sheet. This data was eliminated from the plotted soundings on the smooth field sheet by the area tapes.